That my neighbours should gather around me on my return was to be expected, but that such an assemblage should come from all parts of the state to bid me welcome, I did not anticipate.

The November Election.

On Tuesday, the 4th day of next month. the people will vote for President and Vice President of the United States. It will be by far the most important election ever held, in this or any other country. We sincerely believe that the preservation of the federal Constitution, and the best hopes of mankind are at stake in this contest.

It is the duty, as it is the high privilege of every citizen to exert himself for the cause which he prefers, and to vote for that cause at the polls. Especially is it the duty of every member of the Democratic party to exert himself, seeing the combinations in existence against his party, and the great importance of general Democratic siccess. Thus far, in these South ern States, our Democratic friends have had a comparatively quiet and unexcited campaign; but this, instead of relieving them of the duty and necessity for exertion furnishes one of the strongest reasons why, as the election approaches, they should rouse up and labor for a full vote. Our friends in the free States are fighting the battle for us; let us see to it that no Southern State falters, or exhibits-what does not exist-a feeling of indifference in this momentous erisis.

The fact should not be concealed that the friends of Mr. Fillmore in this State are becoming quite active, and are making arrangements for bringing out their full strength. They calculate on casting as large a vote for Mr. Fillmore as they gave to Mr. Gilmer in August; and if they should do this, and if the Democrats should poll for Mr. Buchanan no more than they polled for Gen. Pierce, they will be disastrously defeated. "Forewarned; forearmed." We observe, in one Know Noth ing paper before us, notices for six Know Nothing mass meetings in the Western part of the State; and we hear of others to be held elsewhere. Are the Democrats of the State proper-their duty, -but are we not to bave more mass meetings, more gatherings, more barbecaus than those we see already provided for? It is idle to expect a full vote without using the means to obtain it. ### WORK! WORK!! WORK!!!

The fourth of November-the great day of battle-approaches apace ! Two weeks from to-day, the arbiters of the nation's destiny-THE PEOPLE-will proclaim their verdict as to the impending contest !-From their decision there will be no appeal-it will be fiual, conclusive, irrevocable! We verily believe that it "will make us, or undo us quite." For eighty years past, our progress in all the elements of national greatness has been almost fabulous; and we should remember that the priceless memories and inestimable blessings of that period are at stake in the prosent contest A spirit alien to that which gave rise to, and which alone must be relied on to perpetuate this glorious Union, has ariseu in the land, and, if not checked by the strong arm of patriots in all sections, will forever blot out from among the nations of the earth the fairest fabric of Government ever devised by the wit of man. Fanaticism has usurped the place of reason in one section of the country, while in another prejudice-bitter and almost malignant prejudice-warps the conduet if not the judgment of many who would push this Government to the very brink of ruin rather than see a Democrat elected to the Presidency. How important, then, that patriots who desire to preserve the Union with all its countless blessings should rouse themselves for a mighty effort -- an effort commensurate with the mementous issues involved!

One section is arrayed in bitter hostility against the other, and the issue is one of life or death to the South. Her institutions-the very existence of the Southern States as co-equals in the confederacy, are imperilled, and a mighty effort should be made to roll back the black tide of fanaticism which is now setting so strongly against us from the North. Apathy is dangerous, and indifference may be fatal. We have the power to make the hordes of Northern fanaticism respect our constitutional rights-for we have but to make a decided stand-an united and harmonious stand-and to declare, as with one voice, "Thus far, but no farther"-and the North would hardly venture upon the hazardous experiment of forcing us into subjection.

We repeat. what we have often before said, that the issue is between Buchanan and Fremont, as the leaders of the two appear upon the political arena great rival parties of the country. Fillmore is out of the question, as we solemuly believe; and we need no other evidence that this is also the belief of many of his 14th do. supporters, than the fact that they tell us if it goes to the House, Fillmore will be elected; or, failing in an election there, the Senate will elect Mr. Breckinridge, and keep Fremont out any how-thus clearly showing that it is a mere game of chance-desperate chance-with them at best, and that they are only kept alive by the hope that, as with Wilkins Micawber, 25th do. something may "turn-up" to their advanwere greatly elated at the reported triumph tage. Hence, they are resolved to play this game of chance through all its stages. The Know-Nothing politicians of the South hate the Democracy with a more cordial it was a mongrel ticket made of Black Re- batred than they do the Black Republicans; publicans and Know Nothings, still they and we believe that they would prefer the rejoiced because of the supposed defeat of election of Fremont to Buchanan-indeed, many of them openly avow it-Neros fidit. But, alas for their joy and their hopes, diing while Rome is burning. We have ter disappointment! They had not heard they would "sell their country for a mess all the news-they halloo'd before they of pottage." We loathe and abhor them got out of the woods! Subsequent intel- as moral traitors. But Fillmore stands no chance. We are under no necessity of yielding to such strait. Buchanan is Fremont's only formidable rival. He is our choice-personal and political. He represents our sentiments-he will surely vindicate our rights. -We have a sound Democracy at the North sympathizing with us. Pennsylvania, Indiana and Connecticut have already came within 19 votes of defeating the nospoken out in our behalf, and in behalf of the Union. Other Northern States will follow their example. It, therefore, behooves the friends of the South and of the Union to move in solid column, to the support of that candidate who is national and conservative in his sentiments, ardent in his patriotism, and a In these three Northern States we have staunch defender of the rights and sovermade a clear gain of twenty members of eighty of the individual States In order to elect him -aye! and by an overwhelming majority-we have but to work. Victory is within our grasp-we have but to stretch forth our hands and gather its ripe fruits. She has proudly sustained her illustrious son, James Buchanan, and firmly set her face against the base union of Know Nothingism and Black Republicanism, that sought to tarnish her good name. She has passed through the fiery ordeal, and comes out unscathed !it is glorious. Pennsylvania was made the preliminary battle-ground to test the strength of the Democracy and of James Buchanan. #### THE K. N. MASS MEETING. A FIZZLE.

The Know Nothings had trumpeted it to the world that they were going to have a grand mass meeting, and that distinguished speakers would be present, &c. Friday last and the Town of Elizabeth City were the time and place fixed upon for the grand demonstration-but Friday and Elizabeth City witnessed neither a mass meeting nor distinguished speakers. Saturday was then fixed dpon, and the thing-such as it was-came off. The procession-a beggarly account of Know-Nothings, numbering, at a guess, between one and two hundred-headed by drum and fife, proceeded to the Academy square, where the distinguished speakers" were to harangue by nobly responding to the call of the them. We can make short work of the enumeration of "distinguished speakers" present-but it would be a job to count those who were absent. #### The Difference.

Baltimore is under Know Nothing domination-her Mayor and Councils are of the K. N. persuasion. In fact, the K. N.'s have had their own way there. Rccently an election was held there for Mayor, and a Know Nothing was elected-but the election was characterized by scenes of riot and bloodshed which have carned for Baltimore the unenviable title of "the mob city." Rowdies and rowdyism ran riot, and violence took the place of law. Such is Know Nothing Baltimore.

Now mark the contrast! Philadelphia is a Democratic city. A Democratic maywas recently held there too-and the occasuffrage without violence or molestation - Minor Botts of Virginia; War Departis Know Nothing, mobocracy ruled the Chase of Ohio. day. That is the difference between Democracy and mobocracy. Let the people

THE WAY THEY DO IT.

Mr. Martin delivered a speech in Hertford last week, which is represented to us as having been an able and powerful effort. Previous to its delivery, an invitation was extended to Mr. John Pool to reply-but he declined to make any arrangement. In opening his speech, Mr. Martin stated that he was perfectly willing for any K. N. to reply to him, and requested any of them who desired to do so, to come forward and he would cheerfully divide time. No one came forward. And yet, after the conclusion of Mr. Martin's speech, Mr. Pool was called for by his party, and dereturns, official and reported, with all the livered a speech in reply. Now, Mr. P. think it would have been better to have "done the thing up handsomely" by regularly entering the lists. But, nous verrons

A Ridiculous Story.

N. politicians to inculcate a belief among the ignorant that Mr. Buchanan is about to withdraw from the canvass-and we regret to learn that persons of whom better things ought to be expected, have given currency to the nonsensical story. It is a silly Know-Nothing trick -- a sheer invention, without the shadow of a shade of foundation in truth. James Buchanan will not retire from the field until after the 4th of November-and then only to take possession of the White House at Washington. Indeed, we verily think that, if he were to announce his withdrawal, he olutions be sent to the Christian Sun with would still get more votes than Fillmore. We hope our Democratic friends will pay no attention to the knavish tricksters who Lodge. play this game.

MURFREESBORO', N. C., Oct. 8, 1856. Mr. Editor: I have thought that i might be gratifying to you, and the readers of your valuable paper, to occasionally learn of the success of our Club, and the rogress of Democracy in this place. The Fillmore Club has at last expired from the effects of a severe wound inflicted on the 7th of August; and the "Samites" have been consoling themselves with the very llusive idea that we were on the wane. What a fatal illusion ! Our strength was never greater, as I expect to show before I conclude. On last Saturday evening, it being the regular night for our meeting, we assembled at the Odd Fellows' Hall, and listened with delight to Dr. King Parker, an old-line Whig of Alabama, who enchained the attention of the audience for the space of an hour, with an eloquent and elaborate discourse on the political topics of the day. The hour glided by imperceptibly, and it really seemed that he had been speaking only a few moments. He would at times tickle the fancy of the K N.'s by alluding to and eulogizing the old Whig party as it existed in the days of lay and other distinguished Patriots and tatesmen, but as suddenly as they were leased and tickled, just as suddenly were hey confounded and troubled by the denunciations of their beloved idol, the "Naive American" party.

His speech, Mr. Editor, was the very best for the occasion, and abounded in eloquence, logic, wit and satire. Dr. Parker was followed by Jno. Moore, a bility, who addressed us with great force. His arguments were ocean deep and perfectly incontrovertible. He charged the 'N. A." party with being the author of the bloody riots which have occurred since its advent in this country. It is said, Mr. Editor, that "a guilty conscience needs no accuser," which was clearly illustrated. They were restless and could not remain o receive the verdiet, but left the Hall one by one until none were left but demo-
